

London for Kids

Start	You are in a train in underground tunnels. You can travel around London.
The Tube 	You can see Lord Nelson's column. You can see two big fountains. You can see the National Gallery.
Trafalgar Square 	You can climb up this high column. You can enjoy the view.
The Monument 	A famous bridge in London. It can open up for big ships.
Tower Bridge 	You can see the Crown Jewels inside. You can see the famous Beefeaters.
The Tower 	The parliament of England meets here. There is a tower with a very big bell.

The Houses of Parliament and Big Ben Bild	You can see street artists. You can go shopping here.
Covent Garden Bild	You can take a ride in this big wheel. You can see all the important sights of London.
The London Eye Bild	You can see important people. You can meet stars from music.
Madame Tussauds Bild	You can see all kinds of animals. You can see many dinosaurs.
The Natural History Museum Bild	The Queen lives in this big palace. It has over 700 rooms. When the flag is up, the Queen is at home.

Buckingham Palace 	You can see many old things. For example, real mummies and parts of old temples.
The British Museum 	You can see how Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson lived and worked.
	End
	(End)

Nutzung der Karten:

Die Karten können als Domino eingesetzt werden.

Die Karten können auseinandergeschnitten als ein Memory genutzt werden.

Die Schüler können selber weitere Paarkarten zu anderen Sehenswürdigkeiten erstellen (Material aus einschlägigen Schulbüchern, Reisführern oder Recherche im Internet).